

Driving Without Gas: How Electric Vehicles are Transforming the Education and Workforce Landscape

November 10, 2016 Webinar Resources

The webinar was recorded and a link to the presentation and resources can be found at:

<http://netwc.net/electricvehiclewebinar/>

The direct YouTube link is: https://youtu.be/kfsqSPHP_So

Webinar Objectives:

1. What are the key skills needed in future workers to support an Alt Fuel fleet?
2. How can employers and educators partner to boost career pathways in the field?
3. Why is this critical now?
4. What has been the key learning from different program approaches in the EV education field to expand or replicate these efforts?

Resources –

The NETWC has produced a white paper to discuss the workforce development needs related to advancing an Alternative Fuel Fleet. You can access this draft paper at:

<http://netwc.net/wp-content/uploads/2016/11/Alternative-Fuels-Workforce-White-Paper-Draft-for-comment.pdf>

We want your feedback as we finalize this paper to help inform educators and workforce development organizations. There is a link to a feedback form on the cover of the paper.

The three featured programs were:

- Washington, DC Electric Vehicle Grand Prix & Global EEE
- West Philly High School, The Workshop School and the EVX team
- Garden Grove Unified School District in Garden Grove, CA & SWITCH Vehicles

The documentary Fast Times at West Philly High, referenced by Simon Hauger, can be accessed at: <http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/frontline/film/fast-times-at-west-philly-high/>.

The Electric Auto Association <http://www.electrcauto.org/> has a number of chapters nation-wide that are good partners for programming.

One source of kits and materials for hands-on educational activities that was references is Solar Made <http://www.solarmade.com/> in Colorado.
